FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

Lewis G. Galloway.

FOR AUDITOR,

Wm. G. Crawley.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,

We are authorized by numerous friends of B. ROWAN HARDIN, Esq., to announce his name as a candidate for Representation in the Lower Branch of the State Legislature, from the county of Yazoo, at the November election.

The "Yazoo Banner" will please copy.

Owing to an unusual press of Job work, and having no assistance in the office, we are compelled to issue but a half sheet this week.

LAND HO!

The fruits of the great political revolution which has so lately delivered our country from the hands of misrule, are now about to be gathered—"harvest home is nigh!"—The President's Proclamation convening an extraordinary meeting of Congress, comes us marked with the strong lineaments of reform. Important and weighty matters incidentally growing out of the condition of the revenue and finances of the country, seems to indicate that a National Bank will be one of the measures proposed to the representatives of the people at the special session. This is the great measure, for which the whigs have battled so manfully and which they have so gloriously won. A National Bank, and the currency which has only been deranged but destroyed will be restored, and without which, industry day toil in vain, and virtue and industry hold up its head only to be scoffed at by a demoralized people!

Below will be found the Proclamation of President HARRISON, convening Congress on the fifth Monday of May next.

Since we are to have an extra-session of Congress, we hope the representatives of the people will go to work at once and repeal the Sub-Treasury Law, charter a National Bank, and pass the General Bankrupt Law.

OFFICIAL.

By the President of the U. S. of America.

A Proclamation.

WHEREAS sundry important and weighty matters principally growing out of the condition of the revenue and finances of the country, appear to me to call for the consideration of Congress at an earlier day than its next annual session, and thus form an extraordinary occasion, such as renders necessary, in my judgment, the convention of the two Houses as soon as may be practicable, I do, therefore, by this my Proclamation, convene the two Houses of Congress, to meet in the Capitol at the City of Washington, on the last Monday, being the thirty-first day of May next. And I require the respective Senators and Representatives then and there to assemble, in order to receive such information respecting the state of the Union as may be given them, and to advise and adopt such measures as the good of the country may seem to them, in the exercise of their wisdom and discretion, to require.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same with my hand. Done at the City of Washington, this seventeenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and of the independence of the United States the sixty-fifth.

By the President:

W. H. HARRISON.

DANIEL WEBSTER, Secretary of State.

To the Editor of the Whig:

SIR—I observe in your paper of the 26th of March, a correspondent of yours and a partial friend of mine, thinks me a "suitable person" to represent the county in the lower branch at the next session of the Legislature. As much disposed as I am to serve the county and State, whenever my poor abilities may tend to their good, yet I am so well satisfied, that there are many others better qualified to discharge the duties which will be incumbent upon our representatives, and whose services may be obtained. In addition to which, my own private business would so materially suffer, that I must decline becoming a candidate for that office. I beg leave, through you, to tender to "Benton" an acknowledgment of the distinguished honor intended, and the hope that he will in November, think me a "suitable person" to fill the office I now hold. Respectfully,

Q. D. GIBBS.
